A Welcoming Church

Today's Readings
 Readings, prayers and any additional notices can be found on the other sheet you received when you came into church today. Please keep both sheets to take home after the service for your own information and further reading.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Clergy cover – Fr. Kit is at Tile Hill this morning celebrating the Parish Mass at Saint Oswalds.

Holbrooks Community Care Association (HCCA) is holding its AGM on Monday 8th November from 12.30 – 2.00 pm in the Community Centre, John Shelton Drive. All interested are welcome. Lunch provided!

Next Sunday is Remembrance Sunday. The Parish Mass will be a parade service for our Uniformed Organisations and the traditional Act of Remembrance will take place at the end of mass.

Memorial Service – an opportunity for all of us to participate in our welcome and outreach to the people of our parish. The service will be at 3.00 pm, followed by tea in the Parish Centre. If you are able, please join us and create a warm welcome for our visitors. Offers of items for the tea afterwards will be greatly received by Joyce Parker.

Gideons International – The November newsletter is now on the table at the back of Church. As usual it is full of interesting news about what they have been doing over the last month and also their commitments during November. Please take the time to read all about their continued work in spreading the Good News about Jesus, especially at this time of year in our Universities as new students take Testaments. Please pray that these testaments will help them in their journey of life. Many thanks also from the Gideons for the mite collectors in our Church which, without these, the testaments would not be able to be given out to so many people. There are a few copies of the newsletter – please help yourself and also a few phials for anyone wishing to support their amazing work.

Christmas Raffle 2010 – Yes – it's that time again! There will be the usual raffle. Three BUMPER hampers (I hope) to raffle off at the annual Carol Service. We can only do this with your very generous help with items for the hampers and your co-operation in selling the tickets. We shall stick to the same scheme as last year and ask if you will take two books per person on a buy one, sell one, plan. It has seemed to work very well for the last two years without anyone feeling too pressured. Towards the end of November I hope to put the list at the back of Church with suggestions for the hampers but, of course, we are always happy to receive whatever you wish to give. Without your very generous help this event could not happen. The draw will take place after the Carol Service on Sunday 19th December in the Parish Centre. The Coventry Festival Band will be with us once again for this event and we shall be serving wine and mince pies too. Thank you all very much for all your help and co-operation. Joyce Parker.

Come and meet Father Christmas – on Fridays 3rd, 10th and 17th December from 10 am – 11.30 am in the Parish Centre. Admittance is £2.00 per child which includes a present. Adults are free. This also includes tea, coffee, squash and biscuits. Why not come and write your letter to Santa and post it in his special post box. Everyone guaranteed to be read. For bookings please telephone 024 76687944. As there is a limited number of bookings it is advisable to book early.
